

Report of the AGS Products Committee

The Products Committee reviews proposals for funding of loans and/or grants requested of the Society that relates to the production of a physical entity. In the past year it has recommended:

- $600 award to the AUGC organizing committee at St. Mary's University for conference expenses
- $500 award to Bedford Institute of Oceanography to sponsor Hudson '70 commemorative events

The committee's flier is included on the AGS website, and in each issue of the Society newsletter. It seeks suggestions for worthy purposes and products to support.

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITY

Does your group require a little extra money to get a project or event on the go?
Does your project fall within the mandate of Atlantic Geoscience Society (AGS)?
If so, we may be able to provide you with that extra bit of funding you need!

The Products Committee of the AGS is currently accepting loan or grant applications for projects that communicate ideas about the Earth and earth sciences.
